

COMMUNITY BENEFITS

Economic Benefits for the State of North Carolina*

Construction of the Atlantic Coast Pipeline is estimated to generate $2.7 billion in total economic activity, support 17,240 jobs** and contribute $4.2 million in average annual local tax revenue. Ongoing operation of the pipeline is estimated to generate $377 million in average annual energy cost savings, support 2,200 jobs and contribute $25 million in average annual tax revenue.

The Atlantic Coast Pipeline route through North Carolina will begin in Northampton County and move southwest about 194 miles through eight counties in the state before ending in Robeson County in the southern end of the state. Economic benefits specific to the state of North Carolina include the following.

• Capital expenditures	$1.2 billion total
• Construction activity	$680.2 million	4,426 jobs
• Tax revenue (construction)	$1.1 million annually
• Operations activity	$11.7 million	925 jobs
• Tax revenue (operations)	$6 million annually

Economic benefits for local communities in North Carolina

County/Municipality	Miles of ACP	2022 Property Tax Payment
Northampton	21 + compressor station	$1.4 million
Cumberland	38	$1 million
Johnston	37	$1 million
Nash	32	$746,000
Robeson	22	$684,000
Halifax	24	$569,000
Wilson	12	$300,500
Sampson	8	$216,500
NORTH CAROLINA TOTAL	194	$6 million

* Analysis provided by ICF International, Chmura Economics & Analytics, and Dominion Resources.

These estimates are subject to change because of route variations and other adjustments.

** A job is considered a person working full time for one year.